

Title I Parents' Right-To-Know 2013-14 School Year

As the parent of a student receiving Title I services, you have certain rights concerning your child's education. You may request information regarding the professional qualifications of your child's classroom teacher(s), including, at a minimum, the following:

- Whether your child's teacher(s) has met State qualification and licensing criteria for the grade levels and subject areas in which the teacher provides instruction.
- Whether your child's teacher(s) is teaching under emergency or other provisional status through which State qualification or licensing criteria have been waived.
- The baccalaureate degree major of your child's teacher(s) and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher, and the field of discipline of the certification or degree.
- Whether your child is provided services by paraprofessionals and, if so, their qualifications.

In addition, your child's school must provide the following information to you:

- Information on the level of achievement of your child on each of the State academic assessments.
- Timely notice that your child has been assigned, or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks by, a teacher who is not highly qualified.

Requests for any of the above information should be made to Dr. Darrel Stufflebeam at the U. S. D. 323 district office. The address for the district office is 201 S. Third Street, P.O. Box 70, Westmoreland, KS 66549. All requests for information must be made in written form.
